

Dear Chairman Powell:

Please hold an official public hearing in the state of Ohio on the proposed changes to the media ownership rules.

Before the ownership rules are rewritten, there should be official public FCC hearings in every part of the country. And the deliberations should take into account impartial and verifiable research on this question.

FCC members should not meet only with broadcasters, or use only industry-sponsored research.

Sincerely,
Martha Maas (Columbus, Ohio)